

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements?

(There was no response.)

The delegates present now not present on roll call may indicate their presence on supplemental roll call. The Clerk will record the supplemental roll call.

(The roll was called.)

THE PRESIDENT: The Calendar and Agenda for Monday is already printed. We hope to make a good bit of progress in the Committee of the Whole and beginning on Tuesday, we will start second readers, so that on Tuesday, the Convention will begin to receive reports from the Committee on Style, Drafting and Arrangement, and act upon them.

This, we hope, will be a daily procedure thereafter, so that we will be having each day at least some action by the Convention with respect to second reading of committee recommendations and then follow through with action by the Committee of the Whole.

Delegate Bamberger.

DELEGATE BAMBERGER: Mr. President, can you tell us now what second readers will be before the Convention on Tuesday?

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Powers, can you indicate with reasonable certainty which ones will be on for Tuesday?

DELEGATE POWERS: Yes, Mr. President. General Provisions 1 through 4, State Finance and Taxation 1 and possibly Local Government, LG-1.

THE PRESIDENT: Every effort will be made on second readers where we have had two or three committee recommendations with the same article to combine them so that we can have consideration of the entire article at one time on the second reader.

Are there any further announcements?

The Chair recognizes Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. President, I move that we adjourn until 2:00 P.M. on Monday.

(The motion was duly seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: All in favor signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

(Whereupon, at 6:20 P.M. the Convention was adjourned to reconvene at 2:00 P.M. on Monday, December 11, 1967.)

PLENARY SESSION

DECEMBER 11, 1967—2:10 P.M.

PRESIDENT H. VERNON ENEY,
PRESIDING

THE PRESIDENT: The Sergeant-at-Arms will clear the aisles and close the doors.

The Convention will please come to order.

We have delayed starting this afternoon because the minister who was to deliver the invocation has obviously been delayed. At least he is obviously not here, and we are unable to reach him; therefore, we will have to proceed.

Accordingly, we will ask Delegate Price to give the invocation today.

DELEGATE PRICE: May we pray:

Our Father, we confess that we have become enamoured with the thrills of the day and softened by the comforts of the age, and as a result we sometimes lose sight of Thy strength against the enemy of our soul.

We have sought after the acclaim of men, but have not sought to be true to Thee.

Fondly have we imagined on earth that we have eternal habitation. Foolishly have we planned for tomorrow as though our days would have no end.

We acknowledge that our feverish efforts result from a loss of a vision of Thee. Make us willing to tell You all things and eager to hold fast to that which is good. Save us from the coldness of the indifferent and the heat of the fanatic, and make each of us to remember that Thine is the Kingdom and the Power and the Glory forever.

Amen.

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you.

Roll call.

Has every delegate answered roll call?

The Clerk will record the roll call.

There being a quorum present, the Convention is in session.

The Chair recognizes Delegate Powers, Chairman of the Committee on Calendar and Agenda.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. President, I move the adoption of today's calendar.
